

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE A-10

THE WASHINGTON STAR (GREEN LINE)
5 June 1978

Letters to the editor

'Soviet oil futures'

I have just read your editorial "Soviet oil futures" (May 23), a rare breath of fresh air which has the sweet smell of candor to me — not crow. It takes a big man and a big newspaper to re-evaluate and set the record straight.

The CIA is trying to be objective. Objectivity like yours makes us want to try harder.

Stansfield Turner

Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D.C.